Marginwake Submission Terms

Marginwake LLC | Effective October 17, 2026

These terms apply to manuscript submissions to Marginwake. See the submission page for current submission guidelines and availability.

What to submit

We consider completed, human-written adult-fiction manuscripts in English from authors who are at least 18 years old and reside in the United States. Only human-written manuscript prose is accepted.

Send your submission to support@marginwake.com. Include your first and last name, email address, manuscript title, query letter and synopsis in the email body, and attach one complete manuscript. DOCX or PDF is preferred. See the submission page for current file-format and attachment instructions. An author bio is not required.

Submit your final manuscript. Revised replacement manuscripts are not accepted during submission review. Any editorial work following a separate publishing agreement would be addressed in that agreement.

Eligibility and available rights

You must own the submitted material or have authority to submit it for review. Simultaneous submissions are welcome. Previously published work is welcome if the rights needed for a future publishing agreement remain available.

Please tell us if the manuscript becomes unavailable while we are considering it.

Your copyright and our review permission

You retain your copyright. By submitting, you give Marginwake a limited, nonexclusive permission to receive, store and copy your submission, share it with authorized reviewers and use service providers as reasonably needed to administer and evaluate the submission and communicate with you. The permission is limited to those purposes and the retention practices described in the Privacy Notice.

Submission does not grant publication, adaptation, merchandising, model-training or other exploitation rights. A publishing relationship requires a separate written agreement signed by both parties.

Receipt and editorial decisions

A receipt confirms that a submission reached the system; it does not mean the work has been accepted for publication. A positive editorial response or an email inviting next steps begins a discussion. It is not a publishing agreement and does not transfer rights.

We do not promise acceptance, publication or a particular review deadline. Keep your own copy of every file you submit.

Withdrawal and questions

For submission questions or to withdraw your work, email support@marginwake.com using the address associated with your submission. Tell us enough to identify the submission, without sending identity documents or unnecessary personal information.

A withdrawal request and a request to delete personal information are different requests. Tell us if you want both. The Privacy Notice explains how to contact us about retained records and your information.
